Not much career guidance at school. Mum saw job advert for library assistants in Camden - went and got a job in 1966 and lived in the YWCA in Fitzroy Square. Swiss was all very new and modern and exciting - there for a month then Holborn and went to "Library School" to do a 2 year course sponsored by Camden in Ealing then went and worked at Swiss Cottage Children's Library. Lots of story time for school, book selection meetings. The chief was Veronica Robinson - "a formidable lady, quite severe". Met and married Martin. Lots of interesting people, all ages. Left Camden in 1974.
