

Elizabeth Duff

Library User

b 1953, Royal Free Hospital, Hampstead

Attended South Hampstead School, Aged 11 when the library opened. Was selected to attend. Union Jacks everywhere, saw the Queen. Used the new swimming pool and also the library in the 6th form for revision. Used to bring the children to the toy library in the 1980s - and worked for the National Toy Library Association. Came to Swiss for talks and exhibitions. "Big and light and spacious - seemed so modern"